(xv) For the words "Finance Department" in rule 55(i) insert the words "Ministry of Finance".

(xvi) Add the following "Note" below Rule 55(iii) :—

NOTE.—With a view to avoiding accumulation of cases in the manufacturing sections, the Verifying Officer after verifying first the stock balances of bulk items such as post-cards, envelopes, match excise banderols, etc., may permit the receipt of cases from the India Security Press to the Central Stamp Store, provided that these cases are kept separately in a secluded portion of the Store away from the stock verified and under verification until the entire physical verification of stock kept in the form of cases is completed. Similarly he may allow the receipts and despatches of stamps, etc., in really urgent cases after first verifying the stock balances of the items concerned.

(xvii) Add the following to rule 55(v) :—

The contents of some packets from the cases opened for check should be counted in detail (banderols being counted in terms of booklets) and verified with the value noted on the labels.

(xviii) For the existing clause (vi) of Rule 55 the following shall be substituted :—

(vi) As regards 'Opened Stock', (the term 'Opened Stock', includes all bundles or packets bearing the label of the India Security Press which are not packed in the form of cases by the Security Press and also all packets or bundles which have been broken open and repacked by the Central Stamp Store including those packed in cases by the Central Stamp Store) verification shall be as follows :—

(a) Counting cent per cent the contents of all broken packets or bundles which are kept in a loose or open condition.

(b) Opening and counting the contents of five per cent of all bundles or packets of stamps bearing the original India Security Press label intact and the contents of five per cent of all bundles or packets repacked by the Central Stamp Store including those put in cases packed by Central Stamp Store, under each denomination.

(c) Opening and counting the contents of five per cent of all bundles or packets of each denomination of postal stationery, match excise banderols, etc., having the original India Security Press label intact and the contents of 5 per cent of all bundles or packets repacked by the Central Stamp Store but not packed in the form of cases (banderols being counted in terms of booklets).

(d) As regards the remaining bundles or packets of stamps, postal stationery, match excise banderols, etc., not subjected to the check prescribed in clauses (b) and (c) above, it will be sufficient to count the bundles or packets after seeing that they have not been opened and that they bear intact the labels denoting the description and quantity of the contents.

(e) Opening five per cent of cases of postal stationery, match excise banderols and other similar items packed in cases by the Central Stamp Store and removing one bundle or packet from each case and opening and counting the contents of each such bundle or packet (banderols being counted in terms of booklets).

(f) Counting the contents of a few booklets of banderols selected at random to see that they contain the requisite number of leaves.

NOTE.—The percentage laid down in clause (v) and in items (b) to (e) of clause (vi) of rule 55 may be increased by the Verifying Officer in selected cases if circumstances justify.

(xix) For the words "Finance Department (Central Revenues)" in rule 55(vii) substitute "Ministry of Finance (Revenue Division)".
